

(Employee Name)

109 LIBERTY POLE WAY, ROCHESTER, NY, 14614

ROCHESTERSPA@GMAIL.COM

585 474 1074

EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

2023 CULTURE BOOK

Seventh edition.

G.R.E.A.T. SERVICE

Greet all guests with a hello and a smile. Being friendly and courteous goes a long way to making someone feel welcome!

Respect all our guests – this is a fun environment; we're not here to determine who's hot or not!

Evaluate the guest's needs and how they'll need to be serviced. UP SELL!

Attitude! Guests may lose their tempers and act up, but always be respectful and courteous. A smile and pleasant demeanor can diffuse many situations.

Thank your guests for coming in and choosing The Rochester Spa & Body Club. Tell them to have fun on the way in, and to have a great day on the way out!

CONFIDENTIALITY

Confidentiality is of THE UTMOST IMPORTANCE

Confidentiality is the guest's right and a key to this business' success.

No guest is allowed to look at the log sheet or be told if someone is specifically here.

NEVER discuss the identity, health status, or personal characteristics of our guests with other guests or others outside of work.

SEE SOMETHING SAY SOMETHING!

If you think someone presents a danger to others, immediately inform management.

DAILY OPERATIONS POLICIES & PROCEDURES

YOUR SHIFT

All Employees must:

- Know your shifts.
 - If it's not posted, call & ask a manager.
- Work your scheduled shifts.
- Sign in on the payroll sheet for hours worked upon arrival.
- Provide 8 hours' notice if you are going to call in sick.
 - Verification from a doctor may be requested depending on the situation.
- Submit a Request for time off two weeks in advance for approval.

Failure to comply with the requirements mentioned above could result in disciplinary actions.

GUEST ENTRY

All guests are to be charged appropriate posted rate for their room or locker.

Complimentary admission is only given to specified persons or individuals given a pass by a member of management.

You will be notified about the guest's arrival by a member of management regarding any complimentary admissions.

Valid complimentary admission passes from a member of management must be presented at time of check in.

No unauthorized discounts are allowed.

GUEST TRANSACTIONS

All rooms & lockers are to be rung up at the time of the guest's arrival.

Your shift letter and the customer's number (customers sign in sheet) must be printed on the receipt along with the locker or room number & their check out time. The receipt then replaces said locker or room key. Here are a few examples.

- On shift A the customer signed in on line 7 for room 10 at 10:30am
 - A7; R10; 6:30pm
- On shift C the customer signed in on line 27 for locker 64 at 4:19pm
 - C27; L64; 10:19pm

Make sure you are using the appropriate rate (weekday vs. weekend or holiday.) Weekend rates start at noon Friday and go until Sunday 10am.

Room or locker must be logged and labeled appropriately onto the sign-in sheet.

When a guest departs, the tag must be crossed out and placed in your drop envelope.

All food, beverage and other merchandise for sale must be rung up before the guest can take them. There are no guest tabs that can be paid off at the end of the visit.

There are no employee tabs. If you want an item, you must pay for it prior to its consumption. Not paying for items is stealing!

Make note of any guest complaints. Include complaints in your drop envelope, and advise the guest to contact us via email at rochesterspa@gmail.com

All guests, even your personal visitors, are required to purchase a room or locker. Remember, this is a work environment, and if a personal visitor is distracting you from doing your job, they cannot be allowed to stay.

EXPIRATION

Rooms are good for 8 hours at the time of check-in with the option to extend.

Lockers are good for 6 hours at the time of check-in with no option to extend.

Closely monitor the expiration time of guests' rooms and lockers.

Only guests with a room can extend their stay. These guests have 2 options to extend.

1. At the time of check in
 - i. $4 for 4 hours for a standard room
 - ii. $6 for 4 hours for any above a standard room
2. After check-in
 - i. $4 per hour on weekdays
 - ii. $6 per hour on weekends/holidays

Extension receipts should be treated in the same manner as regular receipts, coded with your shift letter, customer number and their new check-out time. Staple the extension receipt to the original receipt & hang it on the appropriate tag.

When a room or a locker approaches its expiration time by a half hour, the employee on duty must either page the guest to the office or politely knock on their door and inform them of the situation.

IN & OUT PRIVILEGE

When a guest needs to leave, they turn in their key, and are allowed out once for up to 3 hours max. The key is hung over the receipt, so everyone knows it's been paid for, and they have temporarily left. Upon their return, simply return the key to them and ask them if they would like to extend their stay.

THE REGISTER

You, and only you, are responsible for the register and its contents during your scheduled shifts.

All transactions are to be rung properly, and immediately at the time of sale.

SHIFT CHANGE-OVER

Change-over should never be done alone. The outgoing employee and the incoming employee need to be present during the process.

Fill out all fields on the envelope: Name; Date; Shift; Rooms; Lockers; Vending & Total.

Any VOIDS or DISCREPANCIES should be noted on the appropriate form and placed in the envelope.

If you have an over-ring, you must re-ring the sale properly for use on the locker or room board. The erroneous tag should be included in your drop envelope at the end of the shift, with a brief explanation.

At the end of your shift, staple your inventory sheet, customer sign in sheet and your reports together. Bundle your cash neatly in the sheets you just stapled together. Finally put the bundle in the envelope with all your receipts, seal it and drop it into the safe.

AUDITS

Audits from managers are standard procedure and will happen from time to time. Please do not be offended. You will be in attendance and present during the time of the audit.

Sales figures and register totals should never be discussed with guests, former employees, or anyone else who is not management.

INVENTORY

Inventory for sale should be counted at the beginning of each shift. Do not rely on the previous shift's inventory sheet – it might not be accurate!

Keep track of the items you sell on the inventory sheet.

THE FACILITIES

While you are on duty, please be attentive to guests and not distracted by other activities. Guests always have priority use of the facilities over off duty employees.

The computer in the gym is provided as a service to guests. Please do not use the public area computer for personal use.

The use of the steam room, dry sauna, and sun deck is prohibited during your shift.

The TV lounge is for guests to relax & socialize, and you should not be watching TV during your shift.

THE OFFICE

Just as you are responsible for the register during your shift, you are responsible for the contents of the office while on duty.

While in the office, the door should be closed.

The only time two non-management employees should be in the office together is during shift change-over.

Guests & off duty employees should never be in the office. Only members of management may enter.

When leaving the office MAKE SURE THE DOOR IS CLOSED AND LOCKED.

While on duty, you and you alone are responsible for the office inventory, including (but not limited to) retail items and cash in the drawer. You are responsible and liable for any item that goes missing during your shift.

CLEANLINESS

The Rochester Spa & Body Club is known as one of the cleanest of its kind. Help it keep its great reputation!

Cleaning lists are posted should you find yourself at a loss on what you should be doing.

Steam Room, Dry Sauna, and Restrooms should be checked hourly for cleanliness (smells, debris/litter, general sanitation).

Employees are responsible for cleaning guest rooms immediately after guest departure. A clean room includes (but is not limited to):

- A clean mirror
- Clean sheets properly placed on bed
- Condoms and an empty trash bag in trash can

Please ensure all rooms that checked out during your shift is taken care of before you leave. Teamwork makes the dream work but we don't want to take advantage of our co-workers.

Extra tasks may be assigned to slower shifts as necessary. Do not be offended if you are asked to complete an extra task on your shift.

There is plenty of time each shift to complete the assigned cleaning tasks.

The front office and counter are to be kept as neat, clean, and organized as possible. It is your first impression, so make it count!

THE EQUIPMENT

Organization is a key to success. Make sure vacuums, brooms, garbage bags, and other items are put back in the same place they were taken from. Always make sure your equipment is as clean as possible.

Any faulty equipment or facilities should immediately be reported to the main office, at 585 271 2400.

INSPECTIONS

From time to time, you will get city and insurance inspectors at your window. If any kind of inspector arrives, ask for identification & CALL THE MAIN OFFICE on 585 271 2400.

Do not allow an inspector to wander through the building without you or a manager as a guide.

Be polite and friendly to any inspectors.

DELIVERIES

Packages should be placed in a secure location and never left out in common areas. Management should be notified immediately upon delivery.

Packages should not be opened by anyone other than management unless directly specified.

PHONE PROCEDURES

To eliminate inconsistencies in handling guests on the telephone, here are a few simple suggestions when answering:

- Hello, Rochester Spa & Body Club
- Good morning/afternoon/evening. Thank you for calling Rochester Spa, how may I help you?

Suggested responses when you are asked how busy it is:

- There are people here.
- There's a great crowd forming.

Never say it is dead. Stick to the positives. Remember it takes people to make people and you aren't required to give them a specific number over the phone, no matter what they tell you.

If someone calls for the manager or owner, attempt to get a name and phone number where we can reach them so the appropriate person can return the phone call. If they refuse to leave a message or say they'll try back another time, that is fine.

PRANK CALLS will happen. Don't take it personally. Some people have nothing better to do than make harassing phone calls. If someone calls and hangs up, do not call them back! If their name and number appear on the caller ID block their number on the headset or just write it down, make a note, and pass it along to management. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES SHOULD YOU CALL THEM BACK.

PERSONAL CALLS AND TEXTS SHOULD BE KEPT TO A MINIMUM.

EMERGENCY EQUIPMENT

Know how to use fire extinguishers and other emergency equipment.

Know your exit route and be prepared to help guests if necessary.

In the event of a fire emergency:

- Shut off music
- Shut off video
- Announce the nature of the emergency.
- Unlock exit doors.

DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS & PROCEDURE

Unfortunately, sometimes employee policies are violated or ignored, and disciplinary action must be taken.

Upon the first violation, a formal, written warning will be issued. Management will discuss the situation with you and talk about how further violations can be avoided.

Further violations not limited to the same nature as the first violation may require additional action, such as suspension of employment or termination, depending on the severity of the violation.

If you have ANY questions about these procedures, please contact the office on 585 271 2400.

EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

When you are off duty, what you do and with whom you do it with, is your own business! Feel free to visit and enjoy a room, but always make sure:

- GUESTS COME FIRST.
- HANG AN EMPLOYEE TAG ON THE ROOM YOU'LL BE OCCUPYING.
 - The rooms are complimentary but remember that you are expected to clean your room upon your departure.

As stated above, rooms for employees are complimentary and with that being said there should never be a time where you are discounting rooms (or lockers) unless there's a promotion or otherwise advised by a member of management.

All merchandise is 50% off for employees. This discount is only for the employees. If said discount is being improperly use and/or abused, disciplinary actions may be taken to include loss of benefits. If you are confused by any of this, please contact a member or management.

EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT FORM

I, the undersigned, have read, understand, and agree to the policies set forth by The Rochester Spa & Body Club employee manual.

Violation of these policies or any obvious policies not explicitly stated in this handbook (stealing, sleeping on the job, working under the influence of drugs or alcohol) will result in appropriate disciplinary action. Depending on the frequency or severity of the violation, the disciplinary action may be immediate termination.

If I have any questions about a policy, I will ask the manager or owner prior to acting.

I understand that we are successful because we work together to make it successful. Staying positive, friendly, attentive to the guest's needs, attentive to cleanliness, and attentive to confidentiality has created the excellent reputation we have.

Employee Signature

Date

Printed Name